

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to make a mockery of the FCC, the FEC and the laws that govern public airways is appalling. The public airways should not be used for politically partisan purposes. As a United States citizen and taxpayer I would like to see broadcasting corporations finally held to the rules that they are supposed to be governed by. The public (and my own) confidence in government, more specifically the FCC and FEC, hang in the balance. Can these government bodies do more than fine for indecency? Is the license renewal process a sham? Will Sinclair Broadcasting be held responsible? The answers to these and many other questions will soon be answered by Sinclair Broadcasting two weeks before the presidential election. Please restore the public faith in these government institutions. Thank you.
